

BUILDER

ALMA MATER

O'Utica, My Utica,
The school that always shines,
Your name shall go down in history,
Until the end of time.
For schools may come,
And schools may go,
But you will shine right through.
Here's health, here's wealth, here's happiness.
We pledge it all to you.

DEDICATION

MISS MARTHA EVANS

To one who has served us well, of devoted time and effort, to make our youth as asset rather than a liability. One who let no personal consideration stand in the way of endeavoring success of our school.

by Mr. Milleman

FORWARD

Recollection of our school activities is one of the most pleasant of all experiences. With each passing year remembrance becomes more difficult. In the future may you cherish the pages of this Builder as a few moments of again reliving the past, may you be back be back again at Utica High School, among your friends, experiencing the happy events which this Builder brings back to life.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Comrade President:

I hope my letter finds you well. In answer to your letter inquiring of the condition of the territory, Russia, that you so gracefully appointed me to govern. I present my State of the Union report and beg you humbly for acceptance. My Secretary of Treasury, Bob Rauch, has instructed the Distributor of Commodities, Martha Debolt, to increase the Russian peasants rations to two cans of saradines a day rather than the one can previously appropriated by former Director of Commodities, Georgia Kennedy. My Director of Athletics, Boots Robinson asks for permission to enter his Russian Globe Trotters in the N. I. V. A. Tournament. The team consists of such stars as Graceful Swan, (called so because of his graceful movements), Gorden Brennan, (Russia's modern Willie Stivers), and Ice McFarland, (called so because of his ability to control his temper). Last week while visiting the SHADY DEAL, A Russian night club owned by Buck Daniels, I met two of my old friends, Butch (Tiny) Good and Jerry McArtor, who were employed by his establishment, as bouncers.

My wife, the former Joyce Nye, dropped in a Russian salon the other day for a hairdo, eastern style, and was surprised to find Betty Proctor and Francis Nethers working as hair dressers. On the way home she stopped at the garage to have the oil changed in our Model A and was greeted by George Traicoff and Don Bennett, who are at the present, trying to change the liquid form of oil into a mirgraité chunk that will produce a form of Atomic energy. By the way, the owner of the station was my old pal, Charlie Rostofer.

My wife has been driving me crazy trying to persuade me to have the house redecorated. She is insisting that I have the interior decorating done by the two most talented interior decorators in Russia, Gatha Kinney and Marcia McDonald. Oh, I forgot to mention it in the first part of my letter, but I have been sick and have been attended by the two beautiful nurses, Linda Lynn and Janet Miller. But what peeved me most was my Dr. James Boyer paid more attention to my nurse, Miss Lynn, than he did to me. Well, I will get on with my report. My Director of Agriculture, John Lynn has employed Fred Sheets and David Walton to attempt an experiment by which they will cross a Russian Polar Bear with a Texas Longhorn and get an African Camel. I am sending my children to a Russian Public School. Their two favorite teachers are Claire Ann Riley and Kay Helphrey. At the head of the Health Department are Delbert Robinson and Sonnie Casper. They eat their lunch at Virginia McKee's and Frances Ryan's restaurant, which has as their speciality Black Rye bread and boiled cabbage. My private secretary, Saralou Glancy, has just notified me that I am to attend a luncheon and speak tonight. I have hired two new cooks, they are, Darlene Treadway and Juanita Anderson. I also hired a chauffeur, Ronald Lance, and a porter, Bill O'Hara. My two chief mathematicians, Kippy Johnson and Edwin Russell, have invented a wheel chair with a automatic gearshift. Now I don't have to bother my chief servant, Harold McDonald, to push me around the mansion. I read in the Russian Times that Fred Skeen had broken the worlds record in high hurdling. By the way the paper is edited by Judy Richards and Janet Shirley. My two filing clerks, Carol Portor and Shirley Sprunger have just fouled up my filing system again. I have just employed Sue Guidenburger as chief dog catcher but I am afraid that I will have to release her as the business is going to the dogs. Betty Jobes is at the head of my Intelligence Department. She has employed Allen Good to administer I. Q. tests. Mary Bline and Louise Moxley are the two chief speakers at the luncheon tonight. The title of their speech will be, BENEFITS OF BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE. They will be accompanied by two other members of the Russian Society, Pat Larimore and Carolyn Farmer. I have recently made two new appointments, Eddie Thompson, Game Warden; and Phil Gregg, Old Ladies Retirement Fund. I hear that Phil has quite a program planned for the feeble old ladies. Phylis Murphy, Ruth McVay, and Sara Lou Williams are teaching the people of Russia how to operate a car safely. Paula Shaw is an airplane hostess on the airplane that is carrying this letter. My wife and I bid you a good-bye.

Your Territorial Governor
R. W. Gayheart

Class Will Continued

- I, Jerry McArtor, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Joe Gayheart.
- I, Eddie Thompson, will my prize, speckled bellied coon hound to my sister of the wilds, Patty Fuller.
- I, Linda Lynn, will my fondness for basketball players and position as Head Majorette to Carol Seavolt.
- I, Joyce Katharine Nye, will my ability to flirt with my dark eyes to Barb Cregar. Use it often, Barb.
- I, Bob Rauch, will my whistle in band and a large economy size bottle of aspirins to Garnet Hiles.
- I, Ron Lance, will my ability to day dream during school to Pete Earley.
- I, Bill "Hot Rod" O'Hara, will my Hot Ford to Terry Wahl. Bring some matches Terry.
- I, Don "Leadfoot" Bennett, will my ability to get expelled from school to Bob Bevard, Watch out for Robert Long.
- I, Charles Rostofer, will my ability to tease Miss Evans to George Bricker. Do it up right George.
- I, Dick Swan, will my ball bearing shoes to Don Good for more speed in the back field next year.
- I, Sonnie Casper, will my wavy hair to Mr. Beck. Keep it combed Mr. Beck.
- I, Virginia McKee, will my position of distributing milk to the grade school kids at noon to anyone in next years 4th period study hall.
- I, Harold McDonald, will my ability to get all home work done on time to Bob Hull, seeing as how he gets all his English done a little late.
- I, Martha Debolt, will my position as Student Council President to Mary Jo Torrens. Good luck Mary Jo.
- I, Paula Anne Shaw, will the Picalo to Lenny Trickett. Don't let the weight get you down Lenny.
- I, Sara Lou Williams, will my height to Jane Smith.
- I, James Boyer, will my ability to play wrong notes in band to Dean Dunlap. Don't waste them, Dean.
- We, Kip Johnson and Fred Skeen, will our barbar shop to Robert Scott, so that he can cut George Donald a flat top.
- I, Betty Proctor, will my ability not to date boys to Carolyn Darling.
- I, John Lynn, will my technique of getting engaged to Jon Young.
- I, Saralou Glancy, will my position as head cheerleader to Nelson Trickett. Now the girls won't mind coming to practice.
- I, Judy Richards, will my position as Editor of the Inksplash to John Chadwick.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1956, being of great but unused minds, minute and mammoth bodies, do hereby in a sad but joyous manner affix our signature to this last will and testament.

To Mr. Donaldson, we will a basketball team with more ability and less fire.

To Mr. Mobberly, we leave a class of senior girls that will concentrate on the lesson rather than the teacher.

To Mr. Beck, we will a fine tooth cultivator to cultivate his crop of hair.

To Miss Evans, we leave a song book entitled MEMORIES. Included are those songs which the senior class composed especially for you.

To Mr. Staats, we will the patience which he displayed to his Journalism classes to use in future Journalism classes.

To Mr. Clark, we leave a robot to watch over detention hall while he eats his lunch.

To Mrs. Helphrey, we will a new library system. We hear that Mr. Dewey has been slightly overworked.

To Mrs. Amundson, we leave a pine forest so she will not have any trouble in the future years in finding Geomentree's.

To Mr. Ott, we will a quieter and more orderly chorus and glee club. You understand of course, the seniors never made any noise.

To Mr. Milleman, we leave a new laboratory as the friction from the feet of the busy seniors wore the old one out.

To Mr. Jacobs, we will a book entitled HOW TO TAKE THE STING OUT OF PADDLING. Included is a first aid kit.

To Mr. Colville, we leave a parliamentary procedure group who will continue to win the Gold Metal throughout the coming years.

To Mrs. Smith, we will an organized noon hour plan that will run it's self.

To Miss Bitzer, we leave a sign which will read TESTING AND TASTING to be hung over the Home Economics door.

To Mr. Fowler, we will an umbrella all of his own. Now you won't need to borrow Mrs. Tulloss's.

To Mr. Daniels, we leave a stove pipe hat. Now you'll LOOK tall.

To Mrs. Tulloss, we will a big bunch of red roses for helping the senior play cast when Mrs. Helphrey was away.

To Mr. Castle, we leave a new set of tires for the "Chevy" as the seniors wore the old ones out. Remember those squaling tires?

To Jennette, we will a tape recorder that will repeat "Your Attention Please" every hour on the hour.

To Homer and "Chatt", we leave a wish that they will continue to keep our school tops as they have in the years that we've been here.

I, Juanita Anderson, will my ability to get along with Miss Bitzer to my sister, Janet.

I, Patty Larimore, will my tape on my class ring to Beverly Robinson.

I, Betty Jobes, will the remaining portion of the Midnight oil I should have burned studying to Jane Smith.

I, Gorden Brennan, will my 6 feet 7 inches to Larry Porter. Also my elevated shoes. Now they'll look up to you, Larry.

I, David Walton, will my typewriter to Harlen Starcher.

I, Robert Good, will my football suit to Jim Fouts.

We, Louise Moxley and Janet Shirley, will our ability to forge other people's excuses and not get caught to Lucille Carr.

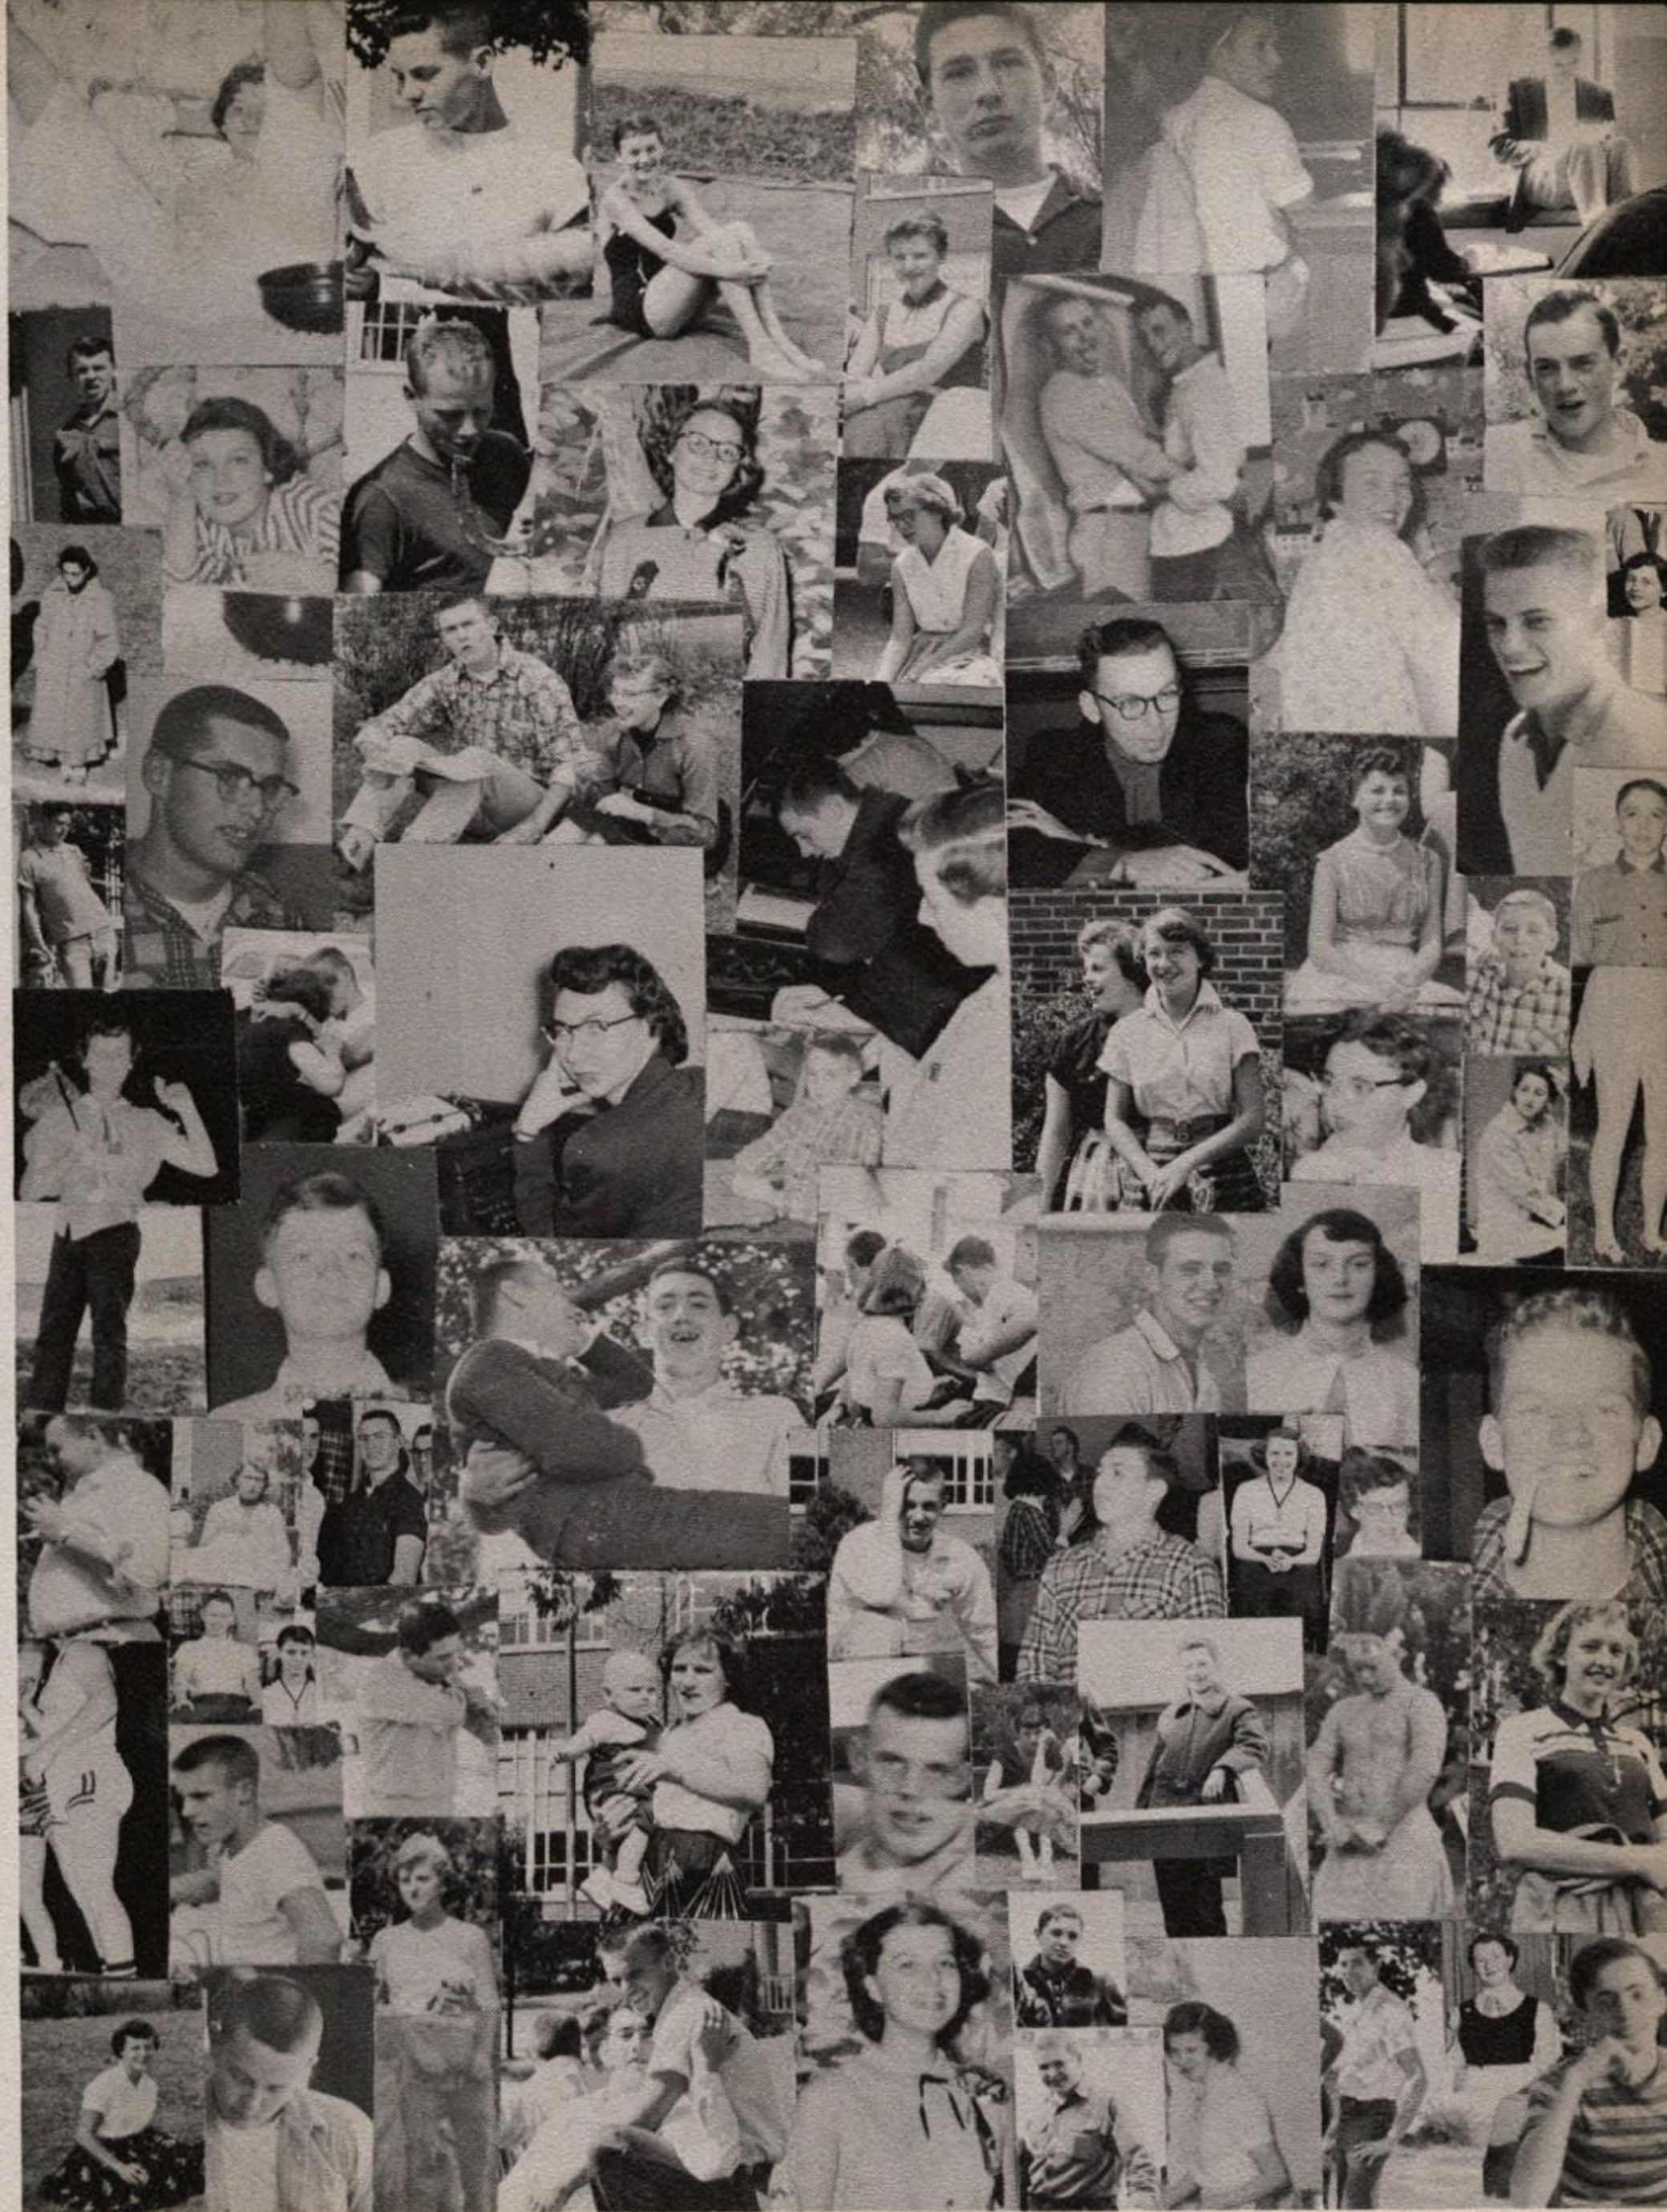

I, Allen Good, will my seat in the office to Bruce Hupp.

We, Shirley Sprunger and Darlene Treadway, will our ability to stay slim to Nancy Reese and Dan Chadwick.

I, Edwin Russell, will my place on the basketball bench to Bob Webster.

I, Boots Robinson, will my curly hair and few extra pounds to Larry Laymond.

I, Carolyn Farmer, hereby will my fortune of being the first senior girl to become engaged in "56" to some lucky girl in the senior class of "57".

ALMA MATER

O'Utica, My Utica,
The school that always shines,
Your name shall go down in history,
Until the end of time.
For schools may come,
And schools may go,
But you will shine right through.
Here's health, here's wealth, here's happiness.
We pledge it all to you.
